

Suggested Interview Questions

Q: Who can be a successful bartender with Happy Hour at Home?

A: Anyone with the desire to entertain at home.

Q: What exactly is a Certified Master Bartender?

A: Status is achieved by a combination of years of experience behind the bar as well as completing an intensive six month Certified Master Bartending program at TGIFriday's. Program focuses on how spirits are distilled, how beer is brewed and how wine is fermented. Knowledge of over 900 mixed drinks and extensive eight hour pour test separate Certified Master Bartenders from the so-called "suds slingers".

Q: What is the 6 Bottle Method?

A: The 6 Bottle Method is the blue print for streamlining the art of home bartending. With our specific 6 Bottles of Liquor, you can make some of the most popular drinks of all time.

Q: Who selected the cocktails in the Happy Hour at Home video?

A: These cocktails were the most frequently requested cocktails by the public so we chose to make these drinks available in your home.

Q: Do you need all six bottles?

A: Yes. It is essential to have all the ingredients to make all of the cocktails in your drink book.

Q: This is a great idea. Why hasn't anyone thought of this before?

A: Since 9/11, people are entertaining at home now more than ever. Our bartenders have been asked repeatedly over the years to teach people how to bartend at home. After assessing the competition (one of our management team actually had a horrible experience at bartending school) we realized that we could be first in a hot new category, Home Bartending.

Q: What drinks can I make with Happy Hour at Home?

A: Go to HappyHourAtHome.com and click Happy Hour Kit Icon and select Drink List.

Q: Can I really make restaurant quality drinks for a fraction of the price?

A: Yes. Once you discover our economical way of making drinks at home, you can pay liquor store prices instead of bar prices. For example, a bottle of Imported Beer at a Bar will cost you $5.00 but if you bought a case of Imported Beer at the liquor store you would pay $1. The same goes with alcohol.

Q: What makes Happy Hour at Home better than what is out in the market place.

A: Our complete package is the only one in the industry with a Certified Master Bartender.

Q: What specific occasions would Happy Hour at Home make a great gift?

A. Weddings, Birthdays, Holidays, Housewarmings and for person who thinks they have everything!

Q: How can I qualify to win a free Happy Hour at Home kit?

A: Take our Drink of the Day Quiz at www.HappyHourAtHome.com. Click Quiz and correctly answer our multiple choice question and you could be today's lucky winner.
